

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the Front-end(React JS) developer position at your company. With 2.5 years of experience in web development and a strong background in JavaScript, I am confident in my ability to make meaningful contributions to your team.

Throughout my career, I have had the opportunity to work on a variety of projects using React. In my current role at Mphasis, I have gained experience building and maintaining large-scale applications using this framework. Additionally, I have a strong understanding of the principles of efficient and scalable front-end development, and also worked on many end to end personal projects and I am constantly seeking to improve my skills and stay up-to-date with the latest best practices in the industry.

I am excited about the opportunity to join your team and use my skills and experience to help drive the success of your company. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss my qualifications further and how I can contribute to your team.

Sincerely,

Mohammed Sharukh P
